We copy the following sections of Senator Logan's bill:

Sec. 10. That whereas marriage in said Territory of Utah rests solely on the contract of the parties, followed by cohabitation, there being no form, manner, or ceremony prescribed therefor by the laws of said Territory, or requiring any record, certificate, or publication of the same, in such case, in all prosecutions for bigamy, polygamy, or adultery, it shall not be necessary to prove either the first or subsequent marriage by the registration or certificate thereof, or other recorded evidence, but the same may be proved by such evidence as is admissible to prove a marriage in civil cases, and proof of cohabitation by the accused with more than one woman as husband and wife, his declaration or admission that such women are his wives, his acts recognizing, acknowledging, introducing, treating, or deporting himself toward them as such shall be admissible as evidence.

Sec. 11. That any woman now or hereafter holding the relation of spouse or consort, and not that of a lawful wife, to any man who at the time cohabits with another woman as his wife, spouse or consort, may at her petition in the district court of the district in which she resides, asking to be discharged from such relation; and the person to whom she bears the relation aforesaid being made a party thereto, and having notice of such proceeding, the said court may, upon due hearing, and after due notice, and upon the testimony of the parties, and after being satisfied that such relation is unlawful, and that the same is not a lawful marriage, and may adjudge and decree to her the possession and control of her minor child or children, together with such portion of the estate and property of the said man to whom she held the relation as shall, under all the circumstances, be equitable and just, for the support of herself and minor child or children. And the said court shall cause to be made on the records an entry of such decree, and give to her a declaration of discharge, setting forth briefly the substance of such decree; and upon the entry of such decree the said woman shall be discharged as a feme sole: Provided, nevertheless, that nothing in this section contained shall be construed to have the effect of recognizing the validity or legal effect of any civil or plural marriage, or to repeal any law in relation to marriage; and nothing in this act shall be held to repeal, amend or change any existing laws against polygamy or bigamy, or otherwise than as the same are modified in regard to evidence admissible to prove the said offenses by the preceding sections.

admitted to citizenship in the United States, and no person living in or practicing bigamy or polygamy shall be en-tory of the United States.

ified to vote shall vote, or offer to vote, fices, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof in the District Court, be fined not prisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 24. That any general or special election held in the Territory of Utah, the election precincts shall be established and designated at least thirty days before the election. The Governor, United States Attorney, and Secretary of the Territory shall have power to appoint one judge and one clerk of election for each election precinct in the Territory so established, and to establish such additional precincts as may be necessary to
